Prime Lambs - 1200

A solid yarding of heavy, well-finished lambs is always a good sign, and from what's coming through the saleyard reports, the market's holding strong.

| | |
|--------|---------------|
| Large | $260 - $313 |
| Medium | $220 - $260 |
| Small | $190 - $220 |

Prime Ewes - 200

A very mixed line up of Ewes today, saw prices slightly stronger than last week. Rams were $160.

| | |
|--------|---------------|
| Large | $180 - $200 |
| Medium | $150 - $180 |
| Light | $100 - $140 |

Store Lambs - 1200

A good-sized yarding of quality Store Lambs today at Coalgate, was met with good demand. A feature line of Rom Tex Ewe Lambs from The Lakes Station were very sought after, making $192 - $208. Fine wool Lambs made $130 - $180. The balance of Romney x Lambs made $150 - $190.

| | |
|--------|---------------|
| Large | $190 - $208 |
| Medium | $170 - $185 |
| Small | $130 - $160 |

Prime & Store Cattle

A tidy yarding of prime cattle today with some standout lines of steers and heifers. The best steers reached $4.92/kg, showing strong buyer interest for well-finished stock. Heifers followed closely at $4.85/kg, with good quality throughout.

Cow numbers were light, so not much movement there. Prime Bulls made up to $4.86/kg, which held firm considering recent trends. Overall, a good result with steady demand across the board. Buyers were selective but willing to pay for quality, especially anything with weight and finish.

A good yarding of quality Angus & Angus x Yearling Steers & Heifers were yarded today. There was very good demand from Central & North Canterbury buyers. Castle Ridge Station had 70 Yearling Angus Heifers that made $1360 - $1400 & Marble Point Station yarded 70 Yearling Angus Heifers that made $1190 - $1280.
