Prime Lambs – 3800

Biggest yarding to date of prime lambs at Coalgate. Prices lifted by $5 to $8 per head with one buyer in particular being very competitive.

Tops	$205 - $240
Good	$190 - $205
Mediums	$180 - $190
Light	$160 - $180

Prime Ewes – 400

Ewes sold on par with recent sales with good competition for weights and grades.

Tops	$200 - $230
Good	$180 - $200
Mediums	$155 - $180
Light	$90 - $120

Store Sheep – 500

First yarding of new season store lambs had a very sound sale with the tops selling for $131 per head.

Old season lambs are proving harder to sell with the risk of teeth cutting before being killable.

Tops	$120 - $135
Good	$110 - $120

Prime Cattle - 171

Once again, the market was on a rise over all classes of prime cattle. Cattle with weight sold particularly well.

Steers	$2.80 - $3.31
Heifers	$2.88 - $3.13
Cows	$1.70 - $2.14
Bulls	$2.74 - $2.96

Store Cattle – 110

Small yarding of all store cattle with better types selling well. Off types were once again tougher going
